There is a fishing pier along the South Branch Root River located in the City of Preston (Fig. 1 & 2), and it can be accessed from the north end of the Trail Head parking lot. Three platforms located southeast of Preston along the Harmony-Preston Valley State Trail (Fig. 3), are along the lower first mile of Camp Creek and are accessed from the paved state trail off County RD 12.

Fig. 1 - Cooperatively established pier is a shady spot on the South Branch Root River.

Fig. 2 - The approach to the pier is paved, but drops 5 -6 feet in 30 feet.

Fig. 3 - Camp Creek has had considerable habitat improvement work conducted on it.

Fig. 4 - The State Trail from Harmony to Preston is paved and almost level.
